

Brush up on the Arts

Zanesville Museum of Art

Explore the arts of Ohio pottery from the early 1800's to the present. More than 700 stunning examples of pottery from the Weller, Roseville and Rookwood companies, J.B. Owens, Peters & Reed and other Ohio firms are always on view. Other galleries offer fine American and European paintings, sculptures, historic and studio glass, as well as Asian arts. Rotating exhibitions offer something new every time you visit the Zanesville Museum of Art. Shop for unique items in the Museum Store and enjoy programs and events for children of all ages. zanesvilleart.org

Masonic Temple

This beautiful seven story building is listed in the National Historic Register and has many interesting features including mosaic tile flooring native to the Zanesville area. Several local businesses, individual artist studios, and Masonic organizations are in the building. Butterfly's Art Studio & Gallery, Julie's ARTery, Rivertown Art Works Studio & Gallery are just a few studios visitors will see. bobgraysonart.com/gallery-g--the-masonic-temple.html

Alan Cottrill

Renowned sculptor Alan Cottrill invites you to watch him at work in his studio. Visitors to the Studio and Gallery are treated to a unique experience – the chance to view a prolific artist's entire body of work. Every piece is represented, from first sculpted head and smallest maquettes to larger than lifesize figures – with photos and narratives of Alan's largest monumental installations. This is the world's largest bronze sculpture exhibition of any living sculptor's work. View over 300 bronze sculptures, bronze bells, tomb sculptures, and educational displays. Open 7 days a week. alancottrill.com

Art on Tap

Art on Tap takes place the third Tuesday of the month, from 6-7pm at Weasel Boy Brewing Company. Tap into your inner artist with fine craft beer, great food, and creative company. A local artist will assist adults in creating a memorable art piece. This outreach event is for all adults 21 and up with any/no art experience and is free of charge! Art on Tap is a monthly event sponsored and supported by the Zanesville Museum of Art, Ohio Arts Council, and Weasel Boy Brewing Company. weaselboybrewing.com

Zanesville Community Theatre

The Zanesville Community Theatre, the oldest continuously operating theater in the area, is located in the historic McIntire Terrace district. The structure was originally a synagogue, but has also been home to several Christian congregations prior to its use as a performance space. Five to seven theatrical pieces are produced annually by the organization. The community theater movement continues to offer a creative outlet to those who have experienced theater careers, or who are talented amateurs. View their complete schedule @ zct.org.

Renner Theatre

Enjoy live entertainment – musicals, theater production and more. Located in historic downtown Zanesville. Sharing the love of performing arts...the tradition continues. Visit zanetraceplayers.org for a complete schedule.
